Decide To-Day

Make your decision as the result of your best judgment, but be prompt. The natural impulse of some will be to wait. Caution to a degree is commendable, but has killed many a man's big opportunity. It will kill yours if you wait now.

KEPT IN PHILIPPINES.

The army transport Warren is to be kept in the Philippines for two months at General Wood's request to distribute supplies to the various army posts in the islands. Some idea of the activity in the Quartermaster's Department may be had from the fact that when the Warren reached Manila recently four transports were landed in the bay and another at Olongapo, all busy unloading cargoes and with hundreds of lighters passing back and forth to shore. This is the time of the year that thousands of tons of forage and other supplies are carried by the inter-island transports.
